

Largest Employment Sectors in the Lincoln Labor Market Area Economy

The retail trade-services sector accounts for 72.5% of total employment and the goods producing sector accounts for 27.5% of total employment in the Greater Lincoln Area economy. How does this fit with your vision of the future economy of the area? What assets and liabilities does this pie chart present?